An Ex-Mining Recorder Who Refuses to Deliver up the Records, [Winnerspaces Bilver Htate]

There is a mining district which is called "Quartz Mountain," some twenty miles from Battle Mountain Aminers' meeting was recently held in the district for the purpose of electing a Recorder, in accordance with the district laws. There were two candidates for the office-Webber, who was Recorder at the time, and a man named McGreg-The latter was elected, and Webber asked his permission to keep the books aday or two The request was granted, and now Webber refuses to turn over the records to his successor. The action was unexpected, and as Webber insisted on keeping the books, suit was brought before Justice Weaver, of Lewis, to get possession of them. The case is set for trial to day and as it appears to be without a precedent in the annals of Nevada junsprudence, the lawyers are CHAP XLIV —An Actsupplementary to the Some say the office of District an Act entitled 'An Act to authorize Mining Recorder is neither a Federal the School Trustees of School District No 10 in Washie county, to issue bonds for school purposes—approved February 18 1879 Some of the legal fraternity are of the opinion that the only way which the newly elected Recorder can get the books is by a writ of mandamus from the District Court It is probably the first instance on record in the State where a Mining Recorder has refused to submit to the will of a majority of the miners in his district. The time was in California, and Nevada, too, when the numers would compel him, without a mandamus, to give up the records of the

From Susanville [Lor S F Call]

No doubt, years hence, that reliable individual, "the oldest inhabitant," will refer to the Winter of 1880-81 as the Printer and will be in readiness for inone in which the clerk of the weather he is so capable, and, therefore, will be used as the date from which to fix with certainty past and coming events Deepest snows, coldest nights and days, heaviest rains, and long continued warm weather, have been its peculiarities For a number of weeks preceding the advent of Spring, the weather had been warm and balmy, so much so that earlier wild flowers had made their appear ance, and the buds on apricot, peach and the earlier fruit trees were ready to bloom But a change came, and last and Mark Parish, were elected Truscovered with snow, which, however, remained but a few hours, but cold nights intervened, which no doubt, will destroy the entire early

FRUIT CROP

The apple trees not being so far advanced it is hoped will escape. To day it is snowing on the surrounding mountums, with every prospect of a heavy storm. The unusual warm Grand opening of Spring millnery weather during the month of February enabled the farmers to do a larguamout of ploughing and seeding Although there has been extremes of cold still it has not been at any one time cold long enough to form ice thick enough for storing and the consequence is not a pound as yet has been saved, Wells, Fargo & Co have reduced and the chances are that warm neerates largely on small packages from cream and cobblers will be fashionable

There is talk of again reviving the scheme of

TAPPING FAGLE LAKE

For migating purposes, in fact, parties rep esenting capital have been on the ground, and are well pleased with the remunerating prospects offered. The project if curred to completion would open up to settlement thousands of acres of now worthless land which only produces sage brush and pick rabbits but with irrigating facilities would be the finest grain land in the country

The absence of water fowl from the lakes and streams of the country has been a marked fature of the past Winter, and even now, with the return of warm weather but few are seen Deer and autologie have be n quite plenty in the hills non town and me often seen in sight from the main street. but still few have been killed they owing their escape more to the nerves than the richingtions and ambitious Nimrods in town Regardless of the law some beautiful

have been taken from the streams here quite recently. That the fish laws should be rigidly enforced is evident, or soon unless relinquished the beauti ful trout streams of this county will be depleted, for in and out of seison each trout that reaches the spawning beds runs the grantlet of scores of hooks and the allming bart

Indications now tre that much prospecting will be done the coming Summer in this county. The recent discovery of mineral in the Miller district, which her about one hundred miles east of here and other

BEIDTED DISCOVENIES

Further north, will no doubt bring many tion of the aw known is "The $120 pro pectors through and from this specimens shown here there is certainly every inducement for energetic men to look over the country, at the loast The be stopped Neglect frequently results in an health of this county has generally been Incurable Lung Disease deaths quite small Typhoid fever has Acts in relation thereto, approved the lower part of this valley, and a number of cases are reparted, but as yet no deaths. The Wool Market

According to the Wool Circular of Maune & Avery, for March, the past four weeks has developed greater weak ness in the wool market instead of the hoped for improvement. The inclumamey of the weather has retarded the ode of both Spring and Till wools Manufacturers are working with extreme cution and wool dealers and commission merchants are becoming discour aged. How long the scare will last, or water it will end it is difficult to determine Stocks are much larger than usual on the eve of a new chp Califorms wools have been very slow of sale. but Peristory wools have been in fair request at low figures. > Two remarkable elegant floral tributes vere displayed at the White House on the fourth. One, presented to President Garfield, represents a canal boat and was constructed of red white, pink, blue and purple immortelles, and is complete in every detail. On one side of the boat is the inscription in red, "1850—1881". This stands in the blue parlor In the east room was a superb ship of state, three and a half feet high. The hull was of lines of the-valley and red, and, white circultons The spars and rigging were of heath ind likes of-the-valley. The bed upon which the vessel seemed to float was a large basket filled with Jacqueminot, Marshal Neil and other roses, narcissuses, crotons, smilax, firms and vio-lets. A blue pennant flower floated upon the mast head, holding in gold letters. Missachusetts the name of a ship This was presented to Mrs Girheld The same gentleman sent Mrs Hayes a most exquisite boquet, and at the time of President Hayes inauguration he presented her with a beautiful floral eagle

SFERWARE OF COUNTERFEIRS. Read the Following: Cohn it. Henry & Co. Gentlemen.;
This is to certify that I have a very large, exceeded practice in this northern part of Iowa, that my business is devoted to a treatment of Europic cases, involving many which have been resenounced incurable by other physicians.
Duringsthe past year I have very freely used fixmin's Carbonic salve, in a number of very regressed ruses and it has given the best of salutaction. It is healing, emplification and auti-septic and never disappoints the physician or patient.
